

The regular season of the 2008 Elite Summer League begins this week. If you did not register with one of the established teams, you have been assigned to this team. If you believe there is an error in your team placement, please email us at info@championlacrosse.com. The complete schedule is below. Please take a moment to read the details in this important email.

Additional Registrants. If you have some friends or teammates who have not yet signed up, please forward this schedule to them and encourage them to register right away. There are only about 10 remaining spots in the elite division for 2008.

Final Teams and Division. This summer we have 14 full teams. They are divided into two divisions of 7. Division I is more competitive.

Important Schedule Information. Because of the power outage during the planned first week, we have had to make some adjustments to get each team a complete schedule. Most teams will have one week that includes 2 games. Each of those teams also has one week with a bye. The crossover date (Div I vs. Div II) is on Sunday, July 13. All but two teams will have a crossover game on this date.

Playoffs and Standings. As you will see below, your regular season schedule includes playing 5 of the 6 other teams in your division. The seeding for the tournament will be done by a committee which will include the team captain/organizer of each team in your division. The top 4 teams in each division will compete for the championship. The semi finals are on August 4th and 5th, and the Championship is on August 6th.

Conduct. We will be sending you a copy of the rules under separate cover. Please note that the following infractions are not tolerated and may result in immediate expulsion from the league: unsportsmanlike conduct, fighting, abusive language or conduct toward officials, use of any drugs, alcohol or tobacco on school property.

Vail. Champion Lacrosse has been on a waiting list to bring an Elite team to the Vail Shootout. We were unable to get in this year, but we plan on taking a team next summer.
